EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

This month, meet Sales Team Account Executive...

JACKSON CARROLL

In his role, Jackson works to understand the unique set of challenges that each organization faces. Collaborating with internal teams, he goes above and beyond to demonstrate how DocNetwork can meet the unique needs of each organization and deliver a custom-tailored solution. His energy and dedication to both clients and internal collaboration make him an indispensable asset to our team.

In a surprising twist, Jackson began his career as a caddy at a Country Club, and here's the kicker—it's the same club where Bill Murray once caddied! Interestingly, he also shares a high school alma mater with the legendary actor & comedian. Talk about a small world!

A comedy enthusiast, Jackson regularly seeks out local comedy shows. Growing up, his dad introduced him to the world of stand-up comedy through the works of George Carlin, sparking a lifelong love for humor. Jackson even dabbles in stand-up, regularly hitting open mic nights for the sheer fun of it.

Beyond the office and comedy nights, Jackson harbors a dream to visit Vietnam, inspired by the late Anthony Bourdain. His goal? To savor the flavors of as many places Bourdain explored in his iconic shows. A food lover's dream!

ORGANIZATION SPOTLIGHT

As a proud initiative of one·n·ten, Arizona's largest LGBTQ+ youth-serving organization, Camp OUTdoors is dedicated to helping LGBTQ+ youth develop leadership skills, work collaboratively, enjoy the outdoors, and develop a strong sense of self and community! With 18 satellite sites across Arizona, a fully-equipped Youth Center, Camp OUTdoors sessions & retreats, a comprehensive Training Program, and diverse volunteer opportunities, the organization's impact extends far beyond its immediate youth community.

Dani Logan, one-n-ten Director of Communications who served their final session as Director of Camp OUTdoors last September, reflects on the profound impact of co-creating a space where young individuals can envision queer and trans futures. A key achievement lies in offering 100% free summer sessions and identity-specific retreats, achieved through extensive grant writing and fundraising efforts to ensure accessibility for all.

Dani shares her favorite memory from Camp OUTdoors, involving Susie Camper, a camper turned staff member. From a transformative moment in 2014, where Susie, then not fully out, experienced the joy of makeup experimentation with cabin counselors, to her return in 2019 as a proud and out makeup artist glamming up her former counselor. "...you helped me put makeup on for the first time when you were my cabin counselor, and now, I'm doing your makeup." The full-circle moment reached its peak in July when Susie returned as Camp Staff, showcasing her exceptional leadership and makeup skills.

Camp OUTdoors stands as a testament to the positive impact it has on LGBTQ+ youth, creating a supportive environment that transcends the camp experience.
